

ELA.1.C.3.1

Forming Simple Sentences & Using Possessives

What is a sentence?

A complete sentence:

- Has a subject
- Has a verb
- Makes a complete thought

Example:

- The cat sleeps.
- The girl walks.
- The boy talks.
- They play on the slide.

PART 1:

Parts of a Simple Sentence

Part 1: Subject

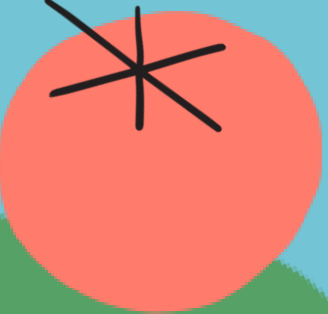

Who or what in the sentence

Part 2: Verb

What the subject does (the action)

Example:

The girl (subject) runs (verb).

Practice Identifying

Find the subject and the verb in each sentence.

The dog runs.

The girl jumps.

The teacher reads.

My brother laughs.

Answer Key

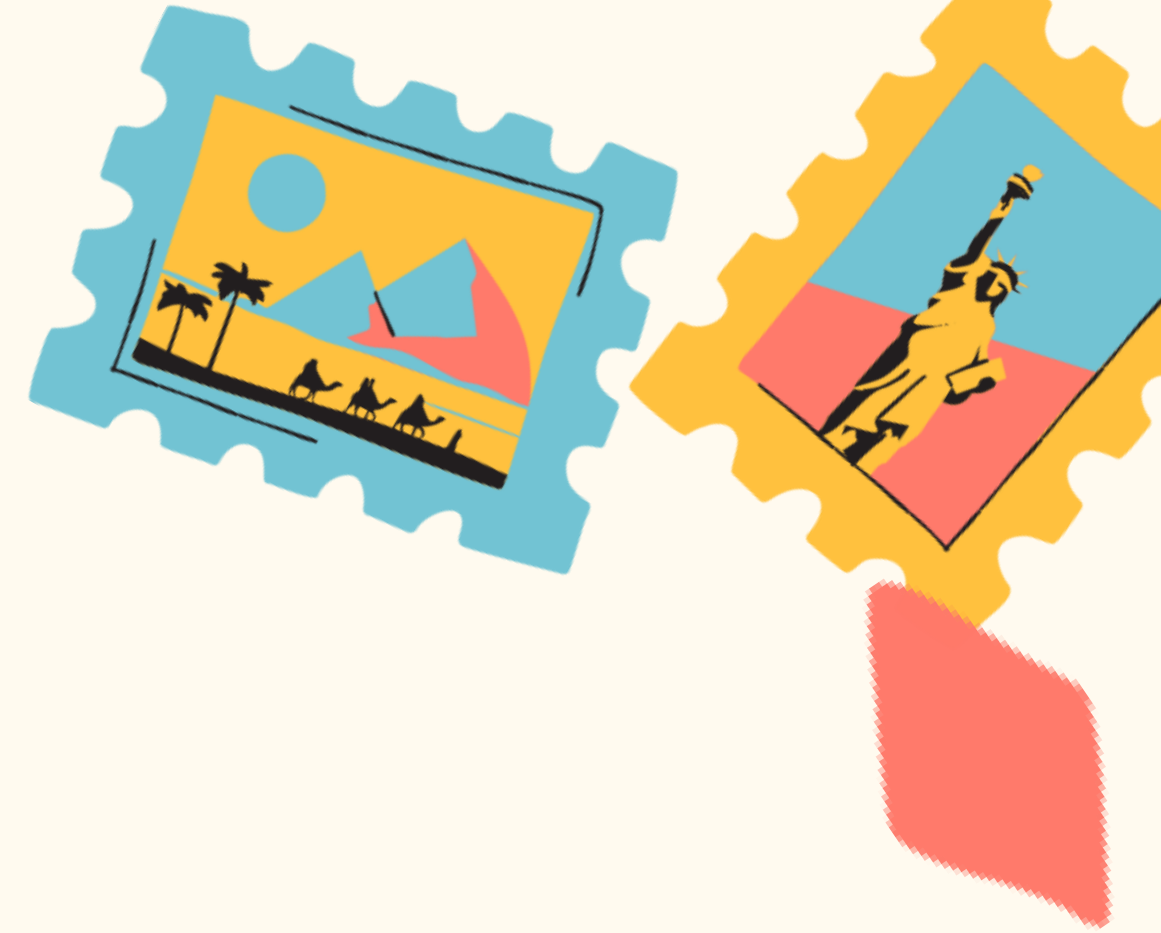

Subject/Verb

The dog / runs

The girl / jumps

The teacher / reads

My brother / laughs

What is a possessive?

Possessives show ownership.

Examples:

- Maria's backpack
- The dog's bone
- James's pencil

PART 2:

Possessive Rule Verbs

Part 1

Add 's to show something belongs to someone.

Part 2

If the word already ends in s, add just '

Examples:

The teacher's desk

The students' books

Possessives in Sentences

Examples:

Lily's cat sleeps.

The boy's bike is red.

The teacher's class is quiet.

Guided Practice

Fill in the blank:

_____ dog barked. (Sam)

_____ backpack is blue. (Mia)

The _____ toys are on the floor. (dogs)

Answer Key

Fill in the blank:

Sam's → Sam's dog barked.

Mia's → Mia's backpack is blue.

dogs' → The dogs' toys are on the floor.

Sentence Writing

Students write their own sentences using a possessive.

Example frame:

_____'s _____ is _____.

Fix these Sentences

Fix the sentences:

The girls book is red.

Toms hat fell off.

The dogs bone is big.

Answer Key

The girl's book is red.

Tom's hat fell off.

The dog's bone is big.

Thank you!

