

Past Tense Verbs with -ed

ELA.1.C.3.1

Review: What is a Action Verb?

An action verb is a type of verb that describes something that the subject is doing.

Can you give some examples of action verbs?

Play

Walk

Jump

Dance

These verbs tell us what someone is doing right now.

Verbs in the Past

If our action has already happened in the past, we add something special to the end: -ed.

Played

Walked

Jumped

Washed

These are called past-tense verbs.

Examples!

Today, I play soccer.

Yesterday, I play~~ed~~ soccer.

Today, I clean my room.

Yesterday, I clean~~ed~~ my room.

Today, I talk to my friend.

Yesterday, I talk~~ed~~ to my friend.

Today, I paint a picture.

Yesterday, I paint~~ed~~ a picture.

Notice that ~~ed~~ is only added when we're talking about what we did yesterday, which is in the past.

The Past

Today, I play soccer.

Yesterday, I play^{ed} soccer.

Notice that ^{-ed} is only added when we're talking about what we did yesterday, which is in the past.

What are some other ways that tell us something happened in the past?

Last night

Last week

Last month

Last year

A long time ago

Earlier

A Special Kind of Verb

➤ IMPORTANT ➤

If the verb ends in an e, just add a d!

Examples:

Dancee

Dancedd

Smilee

Smiledd

Erasee

Erasedd

RULE to REMEMBER:

We add -ed to regular action verbs to show that the action has already happened in the past.

Are you ready?

LET'S PRACTICE!
